PREDICTED DEADLOCK RESULTS IN NATIONAL LEAGUE CAMPAIGN

New York, Dec. 16.—No president of the National league of baseball clubs was elected by the club owners in their five-hour session today. Only one ballot was taken. This resulted in four votes for John M. Ward and Robert W. Brown, a Louisville newspaper man. John Heydler, the present incumbent, refused to allow his name to be presented as a candidate for re-election with a view to clearing the air and determining how Horace Fegel, who represented the new owners of the Philadelphia team, would vote.

As was expected Fegel voted for Ward, who was placed in nomination by Charles H. Ebbetts of Brooklyn, and seconded by John T. Brush of New York. The other votes were received by Ward from those of New York, Brooklyn and Chicago clubs. Brown heretofore has been considered only in the light of a compromise candidate, but he received the votes of Stanley Robinson of St. Louis, Garry Herrmann of Cincinnati, Barney Dreyfuss of Pittsburgh and John S. C. Dovey of Boston. After this deadlock the meeting adjourned until tomorrow afternoon, having done little more than ascertain just how St. Louis and Philadelphia presidents stood.

The deadlock is similar to that of eight years ago, when four clubs desired the election of A. C. Spalding and four others the continuance of Nicholas E. Young in office. In the end a compromise was reached with the resignation of Nicholas Young. Affairs of the league were then conducted by an executive committee, which may result from the present situation.

Heydler Up Later.

John Heydler has by no means withdrawn from the presidential race, and his name may be presented later. But to determine the line-up, Heydler told August Herrmann not to present his name today.

Supporters of Heydler—Herrmann, Dovey and Dreyfuss—enthusiastically and Robinson passively—were jubilant tonight over the fact that the National league was chosen on the first ballot. Charles W. Murphy, president of the Chicago club, said Friday night that Ward had been elected president on the first ballot. The fact that he was not was cause for celebration among pro-Heydler men, who maintain

AUTO SPEED FIENDS TO GO AFTER RECORDS

Indianapolis, Dec. 16.—With the avowed purpose of lowering world's records, famous automobile drivers commenced today a two day's series of speed trials at the Indianapolis motor speedway. The races will start immediately after the dedication of the two and a half mile course, which recently was paved with brick.

Among the drivers entered are Christie, Strang, Atkinson, Kincaid, Stillman and Harroun. Five events, including speed trials for distances from one-quarter to 100 miles are scheduled. Walter Christie, whose special Christie racer made several circuits of the track, at one time going a half-mile in 35 seconds, or at the rate of two miles a minute. Strang, in a Fiat, did the half-mile in 32 1/2 seconds.

MAHMOUT GETS BROKEN
RIB IN LAST BOUT

Chicago, Dec. 16.—The victory of Yussif Mahmout over "Americus" in the windup of the wrestling show at the Coliseum Tuesday night did not come without its cost. The Bulgarian was around yesterday considerably improved, but complained of pain in his left side, having injured a rib in the second fall of the match.

Antonio Pieri, the Bulgarian's manager, had booked him for a match with Giovanni Rachvet, an Italian, at Montreal Friday night, and they were to have left last night; but Pieri called off the Canadian contest after a physician had decided it would be inadvisable to attempt the match.

O'CONNELL SHOWS CLASS

Portland Wrestler Who Meets Yokel Here Defeats Strangler Smith in Great Bout.

That the statement of O'Connell, the crack wrestler of the Multnomah Club of Portland, who meets Alfie Yokel at the Salt Lake theatre Monday night, as to his condition, was true, is seen in the report of the O'Connell-Smith match at Portland last Monday night. About the go the Portland Oregonian says:

"In what is generally agreed upon to be the classic exhibition of wrestling seen here in recent years, Eddie O'Connell defeated Charles 'Strangler' Smith in a hard-fought match at Merrill's Hall last night. The Multnomah club instructor taking two straight falls, one in 53 minutes and the other in 1 hour and 15 minutes.

"Both falls were secured after long-drawn and hard-contested wrestling. The superior in science and strength. Repeatedly he broke holds placed upon him by Smith without very much effort.

"Smith, while he was beaten by a superior man, wrestled better than ever before in his career, and really surprised those who doubted his ability. O'Connell, on the other hand, also showed an improvement, and between the two the fans were given a real treat."

O'Connell wired yesterday that he would be here Saturday or Sunday morning. The seat sale for the bout opens today at 10 a. m. at the Salt Lake theatre. A big advance demand has been made and a full house is assured.

FORMER RING STARS TO TRAIN JEFFRIES

New York, Dec. 16.—Bob Armstrong, the colored heavyweight, who helped Jack Johnson train for his recent fight with Ketchel, has been added to Jeffries' long staff of prospective sparring partners, according to Jeffries' advisers here. If Armstrong accepts the offer and the other pugilists already named are at the bootmaker's training camp, the latter will have these "gambling squabs" can qualify as "experts" in matters pertaining to race tracks and horse racing. He also is planning to keep Chicago detectives at the different race courses.

CHICAGO POLICE TO BE EXPERTS ON BETTING

Chicago, Dec. 16.—In order to make convictions of "hand book" men certain, Chief of Police Steward has evolved a plan whereby members of Assistant Chief of Police Schuetzler's "gambling squad" can qualify as "experts" in matters pertaining to race tracks and horse racing. He also is planning to keep Chicago detectives at the different race courses. Arrests of this class of professional gamblers have so far resulted in few convictions because of the inability of the detectives to prove to the satisfaction of the judge or jury that the defendant was guilty of taking bets on horse races.
